

DAOU

WINE DINNER

Thursday, April 28 at 7pm

Georges and Daniel Daou set forth to find an unrivaled terroir for producing Cabernet Sauvignon when they discovered Hoffman Mountain Ranch, hailed “a jewel of ecological elements.” Later named DAOU Mountain, it produced notable wines and was widely considered the birthplace of modern winemaking in Paso Robles. Georges and Daniel completely restored the original redwood winery, preserving a vital part of Paso Robles history while taking on the responsibility to fulfill the mountain’s long-held promise.
